Charles and Eleanor Garrett

Founders and continuing directors of Garrett Metal Detectors

In 1964, Mrs. Garrett and I founded our company to build a better metal detector than what I was able to buy on the market. To this day, my engineers and I are continually striving to make the sport of treasure hunting more productive and more enjoyable.

Our Garrett PRO-POINTER™ hand-held pinpointing metal detector has become a "must-have" recovery tool and our ACE series detectors have long been the world's most popular.

Eleanor and I are pleased to say that all of our top-performing metal detectors are still made in America under the strictest quality control processes. Whether it is a hobby detector for treasure hunting or a security metal detector for insuring public safety, we deeply value the fact that the brand name Garrett is synonymous with quality.

If you begin your career with a Garrett detector, you will never have to "switch horses" and use any other brand as you improve your ability to find treasure. Our wide selection of specialized detectors will allow you to move to a more advanced instrument as your skills progress. Come join me in the pursuit of treasure hunting excellence. I'll see you in the field!

GARRETT's exclusive Technology and Applications Guide

GTI™ Graphic Target Imaging

GTI 2500 and GTI 1500 both use Garrett's exclusive Graphic Target Imaging. GTI measures and displays a target's true size and depth.

GTP™ Graphic Target Profiling

The GTP 1350 uses Garrett's exclusive Graphic Target Profiling. GTP visually indicates the target's size (small, medium or large).

GTA™ Graphic Target Analyzing

GTI 2500, GTI 1500, GTP 1350, MasterHunter, GTAx 550, ACE 250 and ACE 150 visually identify a target's conductivity or ID and also show the discrimination pattern.

GTI 2500 displays a legend and indicator to assist in identifying targets on the discrimination scale.

Digital Signal Processing™ (DSP)

GTI 2500, GTI 1500 and GTP 1350 include Garrett's Power Master true Digital Signal Processor (DSP) technology. The DSP technology instantly performs complex mathematical functions to interpret treasure target signals, providing improved discrimination accuracy. Garrett detectors with Power Master DSP are also more adaptive to ground conditions and to your individual scanning style/speed.

One-Touch™ Treasure Hunting

With the touch of a button, your detector is:

- Powered on
- Automatically reset to factory (or your) settings
- Automatically adjusted for ground minerals
- Ready to search!

Favorite Finds from Garrett Users Worldwide

From The Field: Garrett Owners' Success stories

Graham S. of Scotland and two of his favorite ACE 250 finds: a 1630s-era Scottish King Charles I forty-pence coin (above) and a King William III 1696 silver shilling (below).

Bruno L. of Paris shared this image of some of the 210 gold coins—all dated from the late 1800s to early 1900s—which he found in a cache with a Garrett GTI 2500.

After just one week with his ACE 250, David A. found this 14k gold ring with 35 diamonds. He had the 2.5 carat ring appraised at $15,000.

Mark I. of Belgium unearthed this 1619 hammered silver coin with his GTI 2500.

A European detectorist found this impressive cache of hundreds of ancient Celtic coins in an iron pot with his GTI 2500.

Hunting in the water and on land, John B. from Canada has discovered over 100,000 coins since he started metal detecting. Using several Garrett detectors, including the GTI 2500, Infinium LS, GTP 1350, ACE 250 and Scorpion Gold Stinger, he has also found many gold and silver rings, some of which are shown below.

Graphic Target Imaging™ (GTI)

With Garrett true depth technology, the 2500's and 1500's display shows the target's depth, regardless of target size.

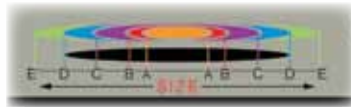

Garrett's true-size imaging gives target sizes ranging from A (smaller than a coin) to E (larger than a soda can).

True Size Scale:

- |                       |                           |
|-----------------------|---------------------------|
| A Smaller than a coin | D Drink can               |
| B Coin size           | E Larger than a drink can |
| C Pull-tab and larger |                           |

The GTI 2500 display shows a depth of 6 inches for a size B (coin) target.

The GTI 1500 display shows a size D (can) target. Treasure Imaging™ pinpoints and shows depth for the target.

Exclusive

PowerMaster™ DSP

Garrett's PowerMaster true Digital Signal Processor (DSP) technology improves your ability to search. The DSP technology instantly performs complex mathematical functions to interpret treasure target signals, providing improved discrimination accuracy. Garrett detectors with PowerMaster DSP are also more adaptive to ground conditions and to your individual scanning style/speed.

Exclusive
GTI 2500 and GTI 1500 only

TreasureVision® Technology

Garrett's patented GTI, GTA and DSP-based technologies combined into one easy-to-read LCD screen to show you modes, settings and complete target ID information.

Seeing your target and your detector's settings has never been easier!

GTI 2500 only

Deep-Seeking All Metal Mode

The Graphic Target Imaging 2500's Non-Motion Deepseeking All-Metal Mode enables you to hover over a target with continuous audio response—which is heard as a "rise and fall" sound. TreasureVision display is fully functional in the All-Metal Mode.

Easy-To-Read

Visual Target ID

Eliminate doubt before digging with visual target ID cursor and accept/reject notch discrimination.

TARGET REJECT: GTA technology enables you to reject specific targets by creating notches (turning off LCD segment(s) on the Lower Discrimination Scale) where that target is identified.

SINGLE TARGET ACCEPT: Find specific targets such as a missing earring. Clear the Lower Discrimination scale completely, then scan the matching earring and press ACCEPT. The detector is now set to find the missing earring or any object with similar conductivity.

and accessories that other detectors don't have!

Exclusive ScanTrack™

ScanTrack is Garrett's exclusive version of "cruise control." To produce optimum treasure signals with some detectors, efficiency will suffer if scanning speed is slower or faster than optimum. With the GTI 2500, swing the searchcoil at your preferred pace and Garrett's circuitry automatically adjusts to produce maximum audio signals on every detected target.

Exclusive One-Touch™ Treasure Hunting

With the touch of a button, your detector is:

- Powered on
- Automatically reset to factory (or your) settings
- Automatically adjusted for ground minerals
- Ready to search!

These early American coins were found in an afternoon's hunt on an old homesite by Larry S. with his GTI 1500. Shown are an 1899 Indian head penny, a 1928 Buffalo nickel, a 1905 "V" nickel, and two 1940s-era silver half dollars.

From The Field: Garrett Owners' Success stories

The ACE has made some incredible discoveries.

Bryce R. of Poolville, Texas, found this shiny Texas Centennial Expo buckle with the ACE 150 he received for his birthday in 2009

"What a great metal detector you have come up with," Garry H. of Republic, MO wrote to Garrett. These are Gary's finds after his first six months of hunting with the ACE 150.

"Don't sell the ACE 150 short. It is much more than a starter unit. It has all the necessary basic features and the same searchcoil as the ACE 250. If you are in the market for a lighter-weight, low-cost but highly efficient metal detector, consider adding the Garrett ACE 150 to your treasure hunting equipment."
—Jerry Eckhart, Cisco, TX

Philip O. found these two silver coins in northern Belgium with an ACE 150. Both coins were minted in the mid-1500s.
